

Whittemore Library Author Event

Come hear author
Thomas J. Craughwell
as he speaks about his book

Stealing Lincoln's Body

Wednesday
February 22
@ 6:30pm

Whittemore Library
243 Church Street
Naugatuck, CT
For information call: 203-729-4591

Books will be available for purchase at event!

Snow Date: February 29th

PRAISE FROM THE CRITICS

"A spirited narrative...Craughwell brings off the entire enterprise by making readers feel, hear and smell the atmosphere of the fetid Chicago taverns where the crooks hatched their demonic plot--not to mention the creepy interior of the shoddy Lincoln tomb, crumbling all around the family corpses as an aging guard of honor struggles both to conceal Lincoln's body in the dank cellar and to rescue the cheaply made temple for posterity...Summoning the raw spirit of crime novels and horror stories, as well as the forensic detail of a coroner's inquest, Thomas J. Craughwell has turned the eerie final chapter of the Lincoln story into a guilty pleasure." --Harold Holzer, Washington Post Book World